The Bankrupt Act.

We have been requested to publish the Bankrupt Law. This is impossible. It makes a respectable volume. In order, however, that our readers may understand it, and may therefore not do injustice to or be imposed upon by parties, who are indifferent to the interests of others, we have taken some pains to compile from several sources the following general principles of the Act, for the benefit of all who contemplate seeking its benefits. But first of all, we advise our friends not to determine hastily what they will do, until they have had the counsel of a respectable and intelligent Attorney, upon whom they can rely.

1. The manifest design of the Bankrupt Law is to benefit honest, but unfortunate, debtors, whose just liabilities are greater than they can pay.

2. To become a voluntary bankrupt under this Act, the debtor must owe at least $300, which, of course, he is not able to pay in full.

3. Petitioners under the Bankrupt Act are required to render a schedule of all their debts and liabilities, of every kind and description whatever, and also an inventory of all their estate, both real and personal, including all property and effects of which they are possessed, or in which they may have an interest, (though not in possession) in conformity with certain "Forms" prescribed in the "General Orders" of the Supreme Court of the United States. These schedules, verified by the oath of the petitioner before a District Court Judge, Register in Bankruptcy, or U. S. Commissioner, must accompany the petition, and, when filed, is the commencement of proceedings in Bankruptcy. It should be borne in mind, pending the proceedings at any time before the bankrupt is discharged, that he has, by any shift or subterfuge, made a false or partial schedule, this would be evidence of fraud and would defeat his discharge.

4. When the petition is by a firm or copartnership, a full set of schedules of the respective estates of the members of the firm should also be added.

5. When the petition is filed, the case is immediately referred to a Register, who examines the petition and schedules annexed thereto, and if they are correct in form, makes a certificate to that effect, to be filed with the Clerk, then adjudges the debtor a Bankrupt and issues a warrant to the messenger to summon all the creditors named in the petitioner's schedules to meet at the Register's office, at a certain time and place, to prove their claims and elect one or more Assignees to take charge of the Bankrupt's estate.

6. A creditor can, however, prove his claim at any time previous to the last dividend, which will generally be six months subsequent to the adjudication of Bankruptcy.

7. No creditor has any standing in a Bankrupt Court until he proves his claim.

8. Creditors have no right to compel the Bankrupt to answer questions concerning the disposal of property by him acquired subsequent to filing a petition in Bankruptcy. In other words, the date of the filing of the petition by or against a debtor, is the date at which, if adjudication of bankruptcy follows, the old order of things passes away and a new leaf is turned over. On this point decisions have been variant. The safe rule appears to be, that the applicant in Bankruptcy has a perfect right to claim whatever he has made after his application, by his personal exertions, but any profits he may have made from investment or credit, may be liable to the claim of the receiver up to almost the period of his discharge.

9. The Bankrupt can apply to the Court at any time after the expiration of six months, and within one year from the adjudication, for the discharge in bankruptcy, and in case no assets come into the hands of the assignee, or no debts be proved against his estate, at any time after the expiration of sixty days.

10. As soon as an Assignee is elected or appointed, the Judge or Register will convey to him, by deed of assignment, all the bankrupt's property except what is exempted, viz: "Household and kitchen furniture and other necessaries not exceeding in value ($500) five hundred dollars; also his wearing apparel and that of his wife and children, and such other property not included in the foregoing as is exempt from levy and sale upon execution or other process by the laws of the State in which the bankrupt resides, to an amount not exceeding that allowed by State exemption laws in force in 1864. A safe Counsellor suggests, under this head, that the common impression that persons duly become bankrupt and yet be allowed to retain their houses and lands, or other property of considerable value, is a great mistake. Under the Act, no honest Bankrupt in this State can have allotted to him, free from the operation of the Act, exceeding $750, besides the wearing apparel of himself and family. Bankrupts in the South are not entitled to homesteads under this Act.

11. It is the duty of the assignee, within twenty days after the assignment to him is made, to set to the bankrupt such articles as are exempted, and file an inventory of the same with the value of each article so allotted, and creditors may make objections to the report of the Assignee at any time within twenty days after it is filed.

12. As to costs in bankruptcy proceedings, section 46 of the Bankrupt Act provides that the petitioner, before a warrant issues, shall deposit fifty dollars with the Register, or with the Clerk, to be delivered to the Register as a security for his fees. General order XXIX provides that the fees of the Register, Marshal and Clerk shall be prepaid or secured before they can be compelled to act. It is also provided by General order XXX that where the debtor has no means, and can prove the fact to the satisfaction of the Court, upon application, an order will be made requiring all the costs in the case to be paid out of the fifty dollars deposited with the Register. If, however, there are assets, but not enough to pay the Messenger after deducting the Bankrupt's exempted property, so that nothing comes into the hands of the Assignee, the fees will have to be paid by the bankrupt; but if the Assignee receives assets, the fees of the Messenger will be paid by him before any dividend is made among creditors.

13. Some suppose that the Register is entitled to $20 fee. The fees of the Register, Messenger, Clerk, and costs of publication of notices in Bankruptcy, are fixed by law, and if they demand higher fees, they are liable, as in other cases of malfeasance in office. In ordinary cases of Bankruptcy, the fees may amount to $100. In some cases more, in some less—the costs depending on the amount of labor and litigation involved in each case.

14. Differences of opinion among Attorneys have existed in this State, as to the hour which the Act makes, as to the time to make application in Bankruptcy. Some have supposed that no debt or will be permitted to apply for Bankruptcy after some early day in March, unless he is able to pay fifty per cent of his debts. We are assured that this is not the case. The law did not go into operation for the purposes for which it was enacted until June 1st, 1867. It gives twelve months from that time, to all honest debtors, whatever may be the extent of their indebtedness which they cannot pay in which to present their applications. After the 1st of June next, every debtor must be able to pay fifty per cent of his indebtedness, in order to a successful application in bankruptcy, unless he first obtain the consent of a majority of his creditors.

THE X. P. G. AND THE MASS MEETING.

A Radical Mass Meeting was held at the Court House, on Thursday night, composed mainly of negroes. A friend has handed us the Standard, of yesterday morning, in which we find over two columns of editorial, devoted to the meeting. We learn that the meeting did not adjourn until 12 o'clock at night, and yet a full account is published next morning in the Standard. We presume the X. P. G. prepared the article before the meeting was held and the speeches made.

Messrs. Lassiter, Holden, Little-field Dewecse, Corwin, Holden, Jr., C. L. Harris, Franklin, Coleman and Colgrove—six natives and four squatters, addressed the meeting.

Holden's speech was exceedingly dull, exciting, we learn, no applause. He set out by saying that the Rads were never more united in the State, that they were marching on to victory, and, in the next breath, he said:

"Such a crisis had never before been before our people. We were farther off to-day from peace and final settlement of all our difficulties, than we have been at any time since the suppression of the rebellion. The question before the people, when stripped of all extraneous issues, is simply this: 'Are we to have peace and prosperity and a restoration of the Union, or are we to go out again upon a dark and stormy sea of revolution without knowing our bearings, or whither we may be drifted?'

It is true that we were never in such a crisis. But we thought the Republicans were marching on to victory" and would get us out! Oh no, says Holden, "We are farther off, to day, from peace and a final settlement," &c. Whose fault is it? Can we ever have peace and prosperity, so long as Holden and his clan desire to rule. He lives upon turmoil and strife. Peace he does not desire for the people, it he cannot be uppermost. He wants no peace, except on his own terms and in his own way.

Gen. Little-field made a demagogical speech that any school boy could answer. Joseph William came in at a late hour and announced that the Rads will carry Wake by 2,000. Poor fellows! they want some comfort in their distress. Old Wake will speak out in thunder tones against the mongrel and infamous Constitution!

RICHMOND COUNTY.—A correspondent, writing us from this county, in the neighborhood of Bostick's Mills, says that "old Gen. Dockery and R. S. Long, (member of the late illustrious Convention,) are the only two white men in Richmond county known to be in favor of adopting the new Constitution." To these two, we presume, may be added the old General's hopeful son, Oliver.

THE GREAT and paramount issue is: SHALL NEGROES or WHITE MEN RULE NORTH CAROLINA? All other issues are secondary and subordinate, and should be kept so.

SAVE YOUR BRETHREN OF THE EAST!

We appeal to the white men of Western North Carolina, by all the ties of common interest, common associations, and common blood, to come to the rescue of their brethren in the East, by voting down and defeating—as it lies in their power to do—the infamous Constitution which was framed with a view to their complete degradation and ruin. The doctrine of negro equality, which permeates that vile instrument throughout, and which subsequent Legislatures are directed to reduce to practice, may, in its application to the white men of the West, be deprived, at least, of one of its keenest stings; for, although they and their children, in common with all the white people of the State, are reduced to the level of the negro in all matters of custom and so-called right, they will, at least, by virtue of their numbers, be spared the terrible humiliation of being ruled over by negroes,—of having negroes to levy and collect the taxes, of having negro Justices, negro Commissioners, negro guardians for white children and negro masters for white wards!—We say that while they, on account of their superior numbers, (although the very paucity of negroes in the West will the more surely work the incorporation of white men with blacks in the militia and necessitate the pending of white children to the schools with negro children, on account of the insufficiency of negroes for separate military organizations and distinct schools,)—while they, for this reason, may escape the degradation and horrors which we have mentioned, their brethren of the same race in the East will be subjected to them in all their hideousness.

In the Chinese waters, a few years ago, an American man-of-war was lying quietly at anchor, when suddenly, from one of the forts that lined the shores of that heathen land, there was opened a murderous discharge of cannon upon an English vessel, near by, which was unable to cope with such formidable odds. Shot and shell crashed through its timbers, and the shrieks of wounded men rang out upon the air.—At once, the gallant commander of that American ship ran up his colors to the mast head, and, with the noble, natural, and now historic utterance, "Blood is thicker than water," he moved to the assistance of his imperilled brethren of a common lineage!—The civilized world applauded the sentiment and the deed.

Will not a similar spirit actuate the noble white men of the West? Their brethren of the East stand in imminent peril of being made the prey and victims of a debasing and semi-barbarous rule. Words are impotent to describe the consequences to the men, the women and the children, of that section of our beloved State, if the places of power and authority are to be committed to a degraded, alien and inflamed race,—inflamed by the prejudices, hates and new ideas of importance, which have been engendered among them by native white outcasts and apostates and Yankee emissaries, who are using them for their own base and mercenary purposes. There may have been trivial sectional prejudices between East and West, in past days, but what are they, to the great band which binds together men of the same hopes, THE SAME ASPIRATIONS, THE SAME INTERESTS AND THE SAME BLOOD? "Blood is thicker than water,"—thicker than anything. Is it not, ye white men of the West?

Already, in the Eastern counties of the State, under the demoralization produced by the existing condition of things, and under the influence of bad leaders of both races, have all the worst features of the negro character developed themselves in a manner that is full of startling import.—Never, in all the history of the past, have crime and lawlessness been so red handed and rampant. These things teach a lesson, which it would be criminal to disregard, and which go far to confirm the results of all former experience, that the negro, released from wholesome restraints, relapses inevitably into his native barbarism.—Look at the following hastily-prepared list of a few of the outrages which have been committed in Eastern North Carolina within the past year:

Jan. 1867. A band of ten or twelve negroes went to the house of Mr. W. F. Hartley, on North West Creek, about eight miles below Newbern. They surrounded the house and notified the inmates not to open the door. But Mr. Hartley prepared his guns and opened the door, when he was fired upon by the desperadoes.

March. The house of Samuel Ellis, in Jones, was entered and robbed by negroes. Mr. E. was sitting by the fire with his family, and had no intimation of the approach of the robbers, until two musket muzzles were placed at his head.

May. Two negroes committed an outrage on Mrs. Springle, in Carteret Co.

June. John Miller and wife were murdered, near Kinston, by a gang of negroes.

July. Three negroes came on the premises of Richard Reeves Foscue, in Jones County, and demanded money of the ladies in the house, which was occupied at the time by Mr. Foscue and wife, their two daughters and two grand children. Failing to get money from the ladies, they took Miss Foscue, Mrs. Owen Wilty and the two children to the smoke house and there shot them—killing all except Miss Foscue, who was much injured. A grand child of Mr. Foscue was shot while in Miss Foscue's arms, and died in a few hours. After murdering the ladies, the murderers tied Mr. Foscue to a post near the smoke-house, where they stripped him of clothing, cruelly and horribly beat him, and finally killed him by striking him on the head with a maul. The wretches then proceeded to the house and completed their horrid work, by murdering Mrs. Foscue. Mr. and Mrs. S. were both over 60 years of age.

Our readers are familiar with the diabolical murder, later in the year, of the gallant and estimable Col. Nethercutt.

This list might be very greatly enlarged by our Newbern cotemporaries.

If such things occurred, when military and civil authority were combined for their prevention and suppression, what may be expected from placing power and rule in the hands of the race which perpetrated these horrors? Men of the West! Your relatives and kindred of the East appeal to you to save them from such a fate! Together, in the past, you have built up our good old State and made her what she was,—you have worked, and fought, and suffered together,—your interests are one—your hopes are one. It would be a libel to suppose that the sacred obligations of kinship and blood will not impel the men of the West to come to the rescue of their race in the East. But if such considerations do not impel them, let them remember that the infamous Constitution proposes to give the negroes of the East a predominance in the State government, which will be a fatal blow to Western interests!

RECONSTRUCTION ACTS.

The Southern Radicals contend that the new Constitutions of the Southern States must ignore all distinctions of color or previous condition, in order to be acceptable to Congress. But why go beyond the positive requisitions of Congress, in order to degrade the white race and bring about ultimate miscegenation?

Congress simply requires that negro males, who are native born and who are 21 years of age, shall be allowed to vote. The great principle of protection to civil liberty is abandoned by Congress in this requisition, unless it could be shown that the negro race, en masse, is capable of the exercise of suffrage. But suffrage does not absolutely accompany with it all other franchises. The right to hold office, and to sit on a jury, is not embraced in the right of suffrage.—But the Southern Radicals were determined to go further than Congress has gone, by not only giving the negro suffrage and equal protection in all civil rights, but by abolishing all political and social distinctions which have existed from time immemorial, originating in color, condition or character.

The so-called Conventions have removed every barrier to the political and social supremacy of the negro. Northern Radicals took the fanaticism of the times in the natural way. They have long been educating themselves up to the point of swallowing the negro whole. But Southern Radicals have taken it by inoculation and seem to have had an easy time of it.

The new Constitution, therefore, goes beyond the Reconstruction acts—requires much more than Congress required. The idea that we must take the new Constitution, in order to get in, is ridiculous. The only condition of acceptance with Congress, is to become Radical, to aid that party in its extravagance and corruption, in holding on to power and place. That is what is wanted. If our people are not Radical and cannot be made Radical, they have no use for us.

TO GET BACK.—Many a good meaning, honest Union man is urged to vote for the new Constitution, in order to get back into the Union. This is a weak point with weak people. Our people want to end the strife—to settle matters and be at peace, but they want real peace. Can they get it, by thus going back? Tennessee went back more than a year ago. What is the condition of the people of Tennessee? Are they at peace? Have the military been removed from Tennessee? Are not the true white people of that State prostrated before the negro idol of the Radicals?

What Congress wants, is for the Southern people to become Radical. Don't talk about voting for the Constitution, until you are ready to be a Radical, for nothing short of this will suit Congress.

TROT HIM OUT.—Why don't the Radical candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction,—Pilgrim Ashley, of Passamaquoddy,—take the stump? We want the people to see the man (so called) who drew up the Article on Education, which proposes to compel white children to go to school with negroes, and who says that all this "foolish prejudice of color" should be done away with. Trot out the Pilgrim, say we. One look at him will be worth any number of votes to the Conservatives.

And there is Gen. Little-field! He has trotted himself out. Fellow-citizens, he is the Yankee Speculator, who is said to have had the principal manipulation of the financial part of the infamous Constitution, by which you are to be taxed all over, from the pegs in your boots up to the wool in your hats!

THE CANVASS IN WAKE.—The Rads in this County do not go with the Conservatives on the canvass. The Sheriff, as usual, made appointments for both parties, but the Rads choose to go alone. At Rolesville, the other day, a black Radical confessed that Mr. Bledsoe, our gallant candidate for the Senate, were the Rads threadbare. Indeed, they must stand clear, if they do not wish to be worn to the bone.

The Rads spoke at Oak Grove, on the 1st, of April. A correspondent writes us:

"I was at Oak Grove, yesterday, but found but few whites there. Those that were there went on business. I heard James H. Harris say publicly, on the stand, that he intended to tax the rich man's land, so that the poor could buy it! He tried to give the assertion a different construction, after he saw he had let the cat out of the wallet.

Let the land holder know that his land is in danger!

If the above is denied, I can prove it by a dozen good white and black men.

D. C. H."

HE FALLS 45,000!—We learn that the X. P. G., in the course of his speech in the Court House, on Thursday night, claimed his election by at least 5,000 majority! A fortnight ago, he claimed it by 50,000!

Rule of Three: If the X. P. G. falls 45,000 in two weeks, how many will he fall by the 23rd. of April? Let the Bureau knobs get out their cyphering slates.

WHICH IS BETTER, a Government administered by intelligent and virtuous native WHITE MEN, or a Government administered by needy squatters, ignorant Africans and impudent allies of mixed blood?

CONSERVATIVE MOVEMENTS—THE BALL ROLLING ON!

ROCKINGHAM.—The Conservative nominating Convention met on the 1st. Joseph H. Cardwell, Esq., presided and W. S. Allen and W. N. Mebane were Secretaries. The Convention was eloquently addressed by Orville Du Pre', late of this city, whose speech is spoken of in high terms, and by Messrs. R. H. Ward, George H. Holderby and Jos. Holderoy, in an able manner.—The following excellent nominations were made:

Senate.—R. H. Ward.
House.—Col. David Settle and Dr. A. B. Johns.
Clerk Superior Court.—W. M. Ellington.
Register.—R. P. Jones.
Sheriff.—Jas. Roberts.
Treasurer.—T. A. Ratliff.
Coroner.—J. D. Ellington.
Surveyor.—W. D. King.
Commissioners.—W. D. Bethel, John D. Watkins, Geo. L. Aiken, J. S. Johnston, H. P. Lomax.

CASWELL.—The nominating meeting was held in Yanceyville, on Tuesday, and was presided over by the Hon. Bedford Brown. Stirring and effective speeches were made by Mr. Brown, Judge Kerr and Hon. S. P. Hill. The meeting unanimously endorsed the action of P. Hodnett, Esq. in the so-called Convention, and nominated the Hon. Bedford Brown for the Senate, and Wm. Long and P. Hodnett, Esqs., for the Commons, all of whom accepted the nominations.—Good for old Caswell!

DAVIE.—The Conservatives of Davie have made the following nominations, in enthusiastic meeting assembled: For the Senate, W. M. Robbins, of Rowan; for the House, Jas. A. Kelly; for Sheriff, S. A. Kelly; for Superior Court Clerk, H. R. Austin.

GUILFORD.—J. T. Morehead, Jr., is one of the Conservative candidates for the Senate for Guilford and Alamance. He will make an able and vigorous canvass, and he challenges the advocates of the mongrel Constitution to meet him on the stump.

DAVIDSON.—The Conservatives of this county held a Convention at Lexington, on Thursday, and nominated the following ticket for the Legislature and Clerk of the Superior Court: For the Senate, Lewis Hanes; for the House of Representatives, H. W. Brummel and W. H. Badget, Esqs.; for Superior Court Clerk, H. N. Deitman.—This is a splendid ticket and will sweep the field. It will justly command the respect of all honest men, white or black.

The Greensboro Patriot furnishes the following account of a glorious rally in Lexington, the present week:

"At 2 o'clock the bell rang and the people crowded to a jam to hear the Hon. Thos. S. Ashe, the Conservative candidate for Governor, address them. Soon after the multitude had quieted down, Gen. Leach arose and in a short but very effective speech introduced Mr. Ashe, who proceeded to deliver one of the most logical and eloquent speeches it has been our privilege to listen to for many days. Mr. Ashe's speech was well received, and produced the most happy effect upon his hearers. When he had concluded, and the applause which was given him at its close, as throughout its delivery, had died away, Mr. D. F. Caldwell arose and delivered a speech of an hour and a half in length, which appeared to be well received by all who heard it. At the conclusion of Mr. C.'s remarks, Henry K. Nash, Esq., of Hillsboro, was called upon in the most enthusiastic manner by all present. Mr. Nash spoke for about an hour in the most eloquent and effective manner.—His remarks were interrupted from the commencement to the close with rounds of applause. Indeed, the people were loth to let Mr. Nash conclude, crying out, at every intimation of the kind, "Go on!" "Go on!" The speeches of Messrs. Ashe and Nash were fine efforts and cannot fail to do good.—When the last-named gentleman concluded his remarks, the meeting adjourned until 7 o'clock, to meet in the Court House for the purpose of forming a White Man's Club.—Shortly before the hour, the bell rang, and the spacious new Court House was soon filled with ladies and gentlemen of the place and vicinity. Beauty, intelligence and patriotism abounded with good humor, which called off the minds of many from brooding over the horrors of the present, to brighter scenes and sweeter memories of the past.

The meeting was called to order by that old veteran Henry Walser, who, after a few remarks, called upon Mr. Welborn to explain the object of the meeting, which he did in a short and appropriate speech, after which the Club was duly organized, and Ralph Gorrell, Esq., of this place, was called upon for a speech. He responded to the call in the most gallant manner. We never heard him deliver so eloquent and patriotic a speech. J. R. McLean, Esq., was next called to the stand and delivered one of the most witty and sarcastic speeches we have ever had the good fortune to hear. It was greeted with rounds of applause from its commencement to its close. The hours were wearing away, but the meeting was in such a fine humor they would not break up until they forced Mr. Robbins, of Salisbury, to take the stand and give them a speech—and he did it, and told the whole story.—In a word, it was a speech of more than ordinary point, interest and power. Mr. Robbins is comparatively a young man and is bound, if he lives, to make his mark in the world. Upon the whole, we were delighted with our visit to Lexington, and more especially with the meetings of the Conservatives we attended while there. Several persons to our certain knowledge withdrew from the Loyal Leagues, and we were assured that the work of disintegration would still go on and increase. And we have similar accounts from every point of the compass, and we rejoice at it. Indeed, if the honest yeomanry of the country will but take the trouble to inform themselves, they cannot fail to withdraw from these secret associations that have and are still contributing so much to oppress and degrade our Southern people. Our friends in other parts of the State may rest assured that the skies are bright and brightening in this immediate section. Let every man, woman and child but resolve to do their duty from the present hour until the last moment of the last day of the election, and all will be right in the end, and victory will certainly perch upon all of our banners."

THE SUMMONS TO GEN. ROUSSEAU.—It is stated that the summons of Gen. Rousseau to appear as a witness in the impeachment trial was made returnable April 10th. The summons was transmitted by the sergeant-at-arms by telegraph, and an answer has been received from Gen. Rosseau from Portland, Oregon, that he will start immediately. The idea of making a summons for a witness known to be in Alaska or Oregon returnable in ten days is the most farcical of all the proceedings in this impeachment farce.—Nat. Intel.

WHAT MR. STEPHENS LEARNED WHILE NORTH.—Mr. Stephens was profoundly impressed with the general quietude, not only of Washington City, but the whole country due North. The Radicals are serene in the conscious possession of almost, if not quite, absolute dominion. The Democrats are passive under afflictions deemed inevitable for the present, and only hopeful of the future through the instrumentality of a peaceful ballot in November. Fighting is about the last thing thought about on either side; the one party tranquilly usurping every department of the Government, the other party tamely submitting, and, like Micawber, complacently hoping for something to turn up. This astonishing condition of affairs is explained by Mr. Stephens as a peculiarity of the American mind—a reverence for actual authority, however lawless, and a desire to suppress it through every exhaustive process of peace, and, failing in this, submission with the best grace possible.—Augusta Constitutionalist.

INCORRECT.—The story that the President does not attend the High Court because he cannot obtain a ticket is said to be incorrect; also, the report brought by an "intelligent contraband" to the proper detective force, that Mosby was throwing up fortifications on his farm. It seems he was only sowing some plowing done for spring planting.—Wash. Express.

HORRIBLE.—Mr. O'Hara, the colored orator, was refused a shave in the barber-shop of Wilkes & Wiley, (colored) last week, because he was unwilling to occupy the room allotted to other darkies. Bully for our Barbers.—Greensboro Times.

DOWN WITH THE CONSTITUTION—That is the watch-word of the white men of North Carolina.

Hertford, Perquimans county, Thursday, April 14th.

Elizabeth City, Pasquotank county, Wednesday, April, 15th.

South Mills, Camden county, Thursday, April 16th.

SHOE FACTORY.—We learn that E. A. Vogler, Esq., of Salem, has more orders for shoes than can be supplied at his Factory. We hope that every Factory in the State will find a full demand for all their products.

GOLD MINE.—From a gold mine, recently discovered in Stanly county, several beautiful specimens have been taken. New discoveries are also made in Union county, frequently.

THE CHARLOTTE Democrat is opposed to the new Constitution and will urge its rejection.

THE UNIVERSITY.—The annual Catalogue of the University of North Carolina shows 115 students on its register for the year 1867 '68.

WE REGRET TO learn that Prof. Richard Sterling, late of the Edgeworth School, at Greensboro', has determined to leave the State, and will take charge of the Female College at Shelbyville, Ky.

REV. C. F. BANSEMAN has been inaugurated President of the N. C. College, a Lutheran Institution, at Mt. Pleasant, Cabarrus county.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—See Court notices from Johnston county.

Change of Schedule: Jas. Anderson, Superintendent N. C. R. R.

We call attention to the attractive announcement of J. Brown, (with Hart & Lewis.) A splendid variety,—and all sold low, for cash.

Two hundred bushels Sweet Potato Plantings: Lynn Adams.

Brooklyn Life Insurance Co.: A. W. Lawrence, Raleigh, General Agent for the State of North Carolina. This excellent Company is daily growing in public confidence and favor. Under the efficient auspices of Capt. Lawrence, the General Agent, its popularity in North Carolina is increasing, as is evidenced by the list of prominent names having policies in the Company.

THE NEW CONSTITUTION has been printed at the Standard office, in large numbers, in pamphlet form, preceded by the address of Rodman and Gahagan, a one-sided affair, for circulation. So far as we can learn, none of these fall into the hands of Conservatives.

Several of the Conservative papers have published the Constitution, without charge. Let the people have it, and let our tracts go along with it.

REGISTER! REGISTER! REGISTER!

HON. NATHANIEL BOYDEN.—The Old North State, of yesterday, speaking of Mr. Boyden's nomination for Congress, says:

"There is every reason to believe that Mr. Boyden will accept the nomination, and, if so, he will no doubt commence the campaign at Wilkesboro' this week, where he is now attending court. Whatever Mr. Boyden undertakes, he performs with the utmost energy. We therefore expect from him a vigorous and efficient canvass. Will Calvin Cowles meet him? We hope so, but we fear not. If he does, he is gone.

All the indications are that Mr. Boyden will be triumphantly elected. Great and rapid changes are taking place in this district."

TO CANVASSERS AND OTHERS.—The State Executive Committee, at Raleigh, have already sent out about 4,000 copies of Gov. Graham's speech, 5,000 copies of the new Constitution and 40,000 of tracts Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8, to Canvassers and friends, in every County in the State, for distribution. Twenty thousand more tracts are ready and will be sent out in a few days. A large number is still called for, but the funds of the Committee are not sufficient to supply the demand. Let those sent be well distributed and let the tracts be used by the Canvassers. It is impossible to furnish every voter, as the Committee desire to do, with copies of the Constitution and the tracts, but we are doing what we can.

REGISTER! REGISTER! REGISTER!

LETTER FROM GOV. GRAHAM.—We shall publish, on Monday, an admirable letter from Gov. Graham, to a Committee of citizens of Rutherford, in reply to an invitation to address the good people of that county. Gov. G's prior appointments will prevent his accepting the invitation, but he writes words of wholesome and patriotic counsel.

HENRY K. NASH, ESQ.—This gallant and gifted gentleman, we are glad to see, has gone actively into the canvass, and is making a stumping tour in the West. We hear the most glowing accounts of his efforts. Henry K. Nash is one of the most eloquent men of North Carolina.

REMEMBER that, on Tuesday next, the books of REGISTRATION will be re-opened!

ARKANSAS.—The National Radical Committee at Washington claim that the Constitution has been ratified by about 1,600 majority. All other advices assert its rejection by a decisive majority, notwithstanding most atrocious frauds.

REMEMBER the proposed Mass Meeting in Raleigh, on Tuesday.

[From the National Intelligencer, April 3.]

THE WADE FACTION BEATEN.

It will be seen by the report of the proceedings of the Senate, both in open and in secret session, that the Wade faction of violent and unscrupulous men were badly beaten yesterday. So confident have been the Wade party of fierce and frantic fanatics of arriving at power, that they have already felt themselves wielding exclusively all the tremendous patronage of the government.—From the first they determined to put under their feet the Chase interest in the politics of the country, and therefore decreed that the Chief Justice should be belittled and tabooed in what related to his truly exalted functions as presiding officer in the Senate upon a case like that of the impeachment of the President.

What of art in Congressional proceedings, in demagogical harangues, in newspaper articles, and in correspondence from this point, has been exerted to carry out the proscriptive programme of the Radicals towards the Chief Justice! We record with pleasure that he anticipated the warfare of the factious persons who sought to tear from his shoulders the ermine of the judicial prerogative, and not only met them in advance, and antagonized them in a manner worthy of exalted manhood, but has the pleasure of seeing, through the agencies of distinguished friends and statesmen, the men who were disposed to disregard all law and all precedent, prostrate at his feet.

The animosity that characterized the leadership of the Wade interest in the open Senate was transferred to the secret sessions. After three hours of struggle in the latter character, in which hostility to the Chief Justice is scarcely lessened, a rule of action was adopted for the control of parliamentary proceedings, which are not of a partisan caucus character, but such as are consistent with the right of the Chief Justice, and with the transcendent authority of the law.

A NEGRO IN THE OLD CHAIR.—The ancient chair of the Virginia House of Delegates was graced yesterday by the imposing person of Dr. Bayne, the negro dentist from Norfolk. He reached that elevation through an agile movement of Mr. J. C. Gibson, to the very great annoyance of the Radicals.—(See proceedings.) The scene was grotesque in the extreme. Like a Simian explorer of a mountain slope, leaping from crag to crag, the descendant of the Cannibals jumped into the chair, and turning about his face, winked and lifted his scalp with satisfaction and complacency. O rare scene! O happy illustration of the logical consequences of Radical theories!—Rich. Dispatch, 2nd.

INTIMIDATION OF VOTERS.—We have been credibly informed that certain members of the league in Warrenton have attempted to prevent colored men from voting the Conservative ticket by threats of personal violence. We know the parties and can establish the language. We hereby give timely notice, that any repetition of this will subject the party to arrest and trial.—We are determined that the law shall be fully executed. The white people are too manly to attempt to force any one to vote their ticket, but they are determined no colored man, who stands by them, shall be molested, or be made in any way to suffer. We give fair warning. We mean what we say.—Warrenton. Courier.

The Cincinnati Commercial understands that the 7th of May is the date fixed for the inauguration of Ben. Wade as President of the United States.

WHICH IS BETTER; a system of State government, devised by Gaston, Macon, Daniel, Morehead, and other North Carolina patriots, or a system devised by New England adventurers, based upon Yankee notions and prejudices, adapted to New England wants, and adopted by scallawags and negroes?

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

OLD CLEAVELAND ALL RIGHT—THE GALLANT DURHAM IN THE FIELD—SCALLAWAG POW-WOW, (THAT WAS-TO HAVE BEEN.)

SHELBY, April 1, 1868.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The enthusiasm infused into the people of Cleaveland, by Gov. Vance, still lives and burns. The more that is seen and heard of the Constitution framed by the Gorilla Convention, the more indignation is aroused.

On the 28th., the Conservatives held a county meeting in Shelby, and made all their nominations, and, at the same time, appointed delegates to meet in the different Conventions, Congressional, Judicial and Senatorial, to make District nominations.

Capt. Plato Durham, our gallant representative, was nominated to represent the county in the House of Representatives (so called.) The platform of the Conservative party, together with the nominations of the State Executive Committee, were heartily endorsed, and the county organized under the plan adopted by the Convention. A full and minute account will be published in your columns.

But what I wish to call your attention, more particularly, to, is the meeting on the same day in this place of the Rump of the Radicals or negro shriekers in this county—Parson (?) Elliott leading. Holden had advertised, in the Standard, a Republican mass meeting in Shelby on the 21st of March, at which meeting George Logan, Cebe Harris, Tod Caldwell and A. H. Jones would be present. No one in Shelby, and I dare say in the county, ever heard of it till it was over, for the Rads here thought it was on the 28th. Any way, the 21st was very quiet here—not even a negro dreaming of such an affair.

Parson (?) Elliott came up on the 28th., with ten other excuses for white men and fifteen negroes. Finding the Court House crowded with white Conservatives, they tried to get a room in the Hotel, but the lady of the House could not allow negroes to assemble there, and they repaired to the Grand Jury room, which is fifteen feet square, and there was room plenty for many more than were present. As Cebe Harris, George Logan and Tod Caldwell could not avail anything, Rutherford county sent down its great orator, Bate Carpenter, formerly a secessionist and a volunteer in the very beginning of the war. Well, Bate came down and was quite liberal, treating every man, and was, as he supposed, getting on swimmingly. The Conservatives had their eyes open, and they knew that, as he had once turned Radical for the loaves and fishes, the nearest way to his heart was through his mouth. But so greedy was he (especially when he mixed brandy and whiskey,) that when he was called on for a speech, poor Bate could not come to time; he was too full for utterance. His friends, seeing that he was a leetle too plum, hustled him off and stored him away. Just, however, as they were taking him to his room, despairing of being able to unburden himself, he exclaimed, "the State of Cleaveland is all right. The Rads are all right. I will telegraph Joe Holden that the State of Cleaveland is all right." No doubt, he thought they were all right, just as a man in his fix, thinks, in the richness of his heart, that the world belongs to him. Poor Bate! when dark came and he got so he could eat his supper, he left.

Well, Rutherford Republicans, if that's your orator and giant killer, in the bottom of my heart I pity you. No wonder intelligent, respectable men are ashamed of such leaders. Better raise a temperance society than a Red String order—it will do more good. But that is a specimen of their leaders.

In this county, their nominee for the Commons has read Holden's paper so much that he often don't know when he is telling the truth, and, as for negro equality, he has negroes to eat at his table, sleep in his beds, and he in public speeches boasts of it. But the people will not be blinded always.—The scales are falling from their eyes and the black visage of the negro enveloped in the pretended Union shroud is appearing. The warm weather will tell on them—Jockey Club, Cologne and Magnolia to the contrary notwithstanding. The warm South will raise a scent. Disguise it as best they can, and shriek Union till their lungs burst, the people will see that office, place and power are the beginning and end of these men's love for negroes.

CLEAVELAND.

Our New York Correspondence.

NEW YORK, April 2, 1868.

After a winter of unusual severity and long continuance, the heaps of snow, which have so marred the beauty of our streets, have at length disappeared, and the gentle air of Spring is beginning to induce invalids (and pleasure seekers generally) to frequent the numerous City Parks. Broad way, too, is assuming a Spring-like appearance, both in the displays as exhibited through its shop-windows, and in the lighter colored garments worn by the gay pedestrians who throng that world-renowned thoroughfare.

You have had accounts of "opening day," as it is called, which came off last week, and which was the occasion for the rival Milliners and Modistes of the city to throw open their well supplied establishments to the inspection of Miss Flora McFlimsey, and other ladies in Gotham and the rest of the country, who have "nothing to wear." I shall, therefore, descant but little on this topic. Suffice it to say, that the bonnets are growing beautifully and more beautifully less; and in some instances it is quite probable that they will be completely hidden in their legitimate amount of trimmings and things. Prices, however, do not diminish in a corresponding ratio; and it is not so much of an exaggeration, as one might think, to say, that many of the bonnets, now on exhibition, are "worth their weight in gold."

But business lags. Merchants in all departments of trade are making sad complaints of the scarcity of customers. Customers come, but they purchase not. They look through the stocks; go to see the White Fawn; call upon the Cyrocephalus, (a new wonder, in the shape of a trained monkey, at the circus); take a ride through "the Park;" and then make a few purchases, by way of keeping up appearances, and return to their homes to await those long-looked for "better times."

Indeed, the unfixity of affairs, produced by the reckless legislation of Congress, has brought nearly all kinds of business to a perfect stand still; and this, of course, will continue so long as the Radicals remain in power. Since the first flurry caused by the removal of Stanton, New York has experienced but little excitement in the political world; and although we look upon the removal of President Johnson by the impeachers as a foregone conclusion, we are nevertheless united in the opinion that such a removal will be a shame upon the country. But as the President has never given the people a tangible issue, they cannot come to his relief except through the medium of the ballot box. Much interest is felt in the result of the election which is to be held next week, the 6th. inst., in Connecticut. It will be a close race and both parties are hopeful.

Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Davis spent several days in New York last week. They arrived on the steamer from Havana, and are on a visit to their children in Canada. Mr. Davis says his health is very good, but it was quite perceptible to those who knew him in Richmond, that his physical vigor is much impaired. He feels that he has never done anything but battle for Constitutional liberty, and he says that his prayers are yet for the welfare of his country.

CONSERVATIVE MEETING IN RANDOLPH.

Pursuant to previous notice, a Conservative meeting was held in the Town of Ashboro', on the 30th. day of March, 1868.

On motion, the Rev. Dr. Braxton Craven was called to the Chair and Dr. J. F. Caviness was appointed Secretary.

On motion, Dr. A. Holton, G. A. Foust, Henry Lewallen, E. M. Reeves, Ivy Keerans, M. S. Robins, Hezekiah Dorsett, Jesse Walker, Dr. C. W. Woollen, W. C. Hammer and Jesse Vuncanon were appointed a Committee to prepare business for the action of the meeting.

After a short absence, the Committee reported the following Preamble and Resolutions, to wit:

WHEREAS, our people will be called upon, in less than twenty-five days, to go to the polls and vote for or against a new Constitution for our beloved State, which radically changes the system of our government framed by our revolutionary ancestors, and under which we lived happily, while we observed the land-marks established by them, and which proposes to substitute, in the place of our familiar and time-honored institutions, a large number of new offices and swarms of new office-holders, to swallow up the substance of our people by way of taxation, and place us and our posterity under the government of a servile race just released from bondage; which government must, in the end, result in the ruin of both races; AND WHEREAS a Convention of the people of the State, entertaining similar views with ourselves, was held at Raleigh, on the 5th. day of February last, which made a Declaration of Principles that are in accord with our own, and recommended a system of organization to the Conservative people of the different counties of this State: Therefore

Resolved, 1st., That we most heartily endorse the principles laid down by said Convention at Raleigh.

2. That this meeting appoint a County Conservative Executive Committee, to consist of five members; also a Committee in each Captain's District to consist of two members; also five true Conservatives to canvass Randolph County and explain the new Constitution to the people.

3. That this meeting, being earnestly opposed to said Constitution, deem it their duty to nominate candidates for the various offices within the gift of the people of the County, under the new Constitution, and that they demand of said candidates no test except adhesion to the principles laid down by the Conservative Convention at Raleigh, heretofore referred to, and unalterable opposition to the new Constitution.

After interesting addresses from Dr. J. M. Worth and M. S. Robins, Esq., the preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted.

M. S. Robins, W. R. Frazer, G. A. Foust, Dr. Alfred Holton and Dr. S. A. Henley were appointed Executive Committee for the County.

M. S. Robins, John H. Hill, Z. P. Rush, Joseph Causey and Henry Lewallen were appointed County Canvassers.

SHALL NEGRO GUARDIANS BE APPOINTED FOR WHITE WARDS? That is one of the issues. The so-called Convention voted down a prohibition of this possible outrage!

The SUCCESS of the white men of North Carolina, on the 21st. of April, is a CERTAINTY, if they will all VOTE, as we believe they will.

THE STRONG CASE.

WASHINGTON, April 3, M.

Strong, the alleged fugitive from Virginia former released by Judge Fisher, on the ground that Virginia was no state, and subsequently arrested on a requisition from Gen. Schofield, was discharged. The discharge is based on defective papers.

It was not shown that Strong was a fugitive from justice. Interesting points were not discussed though, incidentally, Judge Carter designates Schofield as the Executive of Virginia. The District Attorney will have Strong re-arrested, when he can obtain a more complete requisition.

CONGRESS—IMPEACHMENT.

WASHINGTON, April 3, P. M.

No legislation in either house.

The Court resumed evidence regarding the President's speeches.

Regarding that delivered to the Committee of the Philadelphia Convention, the Associated Press copy was corrected by Col. Moore, the President's Private Secretary, and the one reproduced from the original stenographic notes, was admitted.

The Cleaveland speech was next taken up.

Chase ruled against the admission of the Cleaveland Leader's version, as published. The copy was a condensation from long-hand notes.

Drake appealed and was sustained. 35 to 11.—Johnson and Norton voting aye' said Trumbull nay.

Two other versions of the Cleaveland speech were admitted.

Most of the day was spent in discussing the art of reporting.

Two attempts to adjourn to Monday were defeated.

Adjourned.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Impeachment developed nothing new, to-day.

Butler continues to do all the work—losing papers occasionally, apparently for the purpose of keeping his associates awake by helping him find them. These frequent searches for Butler's missing documents employ his associates. They do nothing else.

Cabinet, to-day, Thomas not present.

The Reconstruction Committee consider the Florida Constitution to-morrow.

RICHMOND, April 3 P. M.

General Schofield has issued an order to enforce the State law against unlawful hunting on lands.

The Evacuation day was celebrated by the colored Societies, to-day. About three thousand blacks gathered on the Square and listened to addresses from black speakers. Good order prevailed.

FROM GEORGIA.

AUGUSTA, April 3, P. M.

Hon. Linton Stephens and Gen. John B. Gordon addressed the Democracy of Richmond county, last night, advising the people to vote against the Reconstruction Constitution.

The contest for Governor is becoming excited. The friends of Irwin, the independent candidate, and Bullock Republican, are working hard for the respective candidates.

Gen. Canby's Election Order.

HEADQUARTERS SECOND MILITARY DIST.,
Charleston, S. C., March 23, 1868.

GENERAL ORDERS, }
No. 45.

The Constitutional Convention of the State of North Carolina, in conformity with the Act of Congress of March 23, 1867, supplementary to the Act of March 2, 1867, "to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," having framed a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of the aforecited laws; and having by an ordinance adopted on the 17th day of March, 1868, provided that the said Constitution shall be submitted "for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this Act [March 23, 1867, Section 4] at an election to be conducted by the officers appointed or to be appointed by the Commanding General as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days after the notice thereof to be given by the said Convention;" and having further provided, by the aforesaid ordinance, that at the same time an election shall be held for Senators and Representatives in the General Assembly, and for all State and County officers who are to be elected by the people under this Constitution, and further, that in each Congressional District of the State an election shall be held for a member of the House of Representatives of the United States Congress, It is ordered:

First. That an election be held in the State of North Carolina, commencing on Tuesday, the 21st day of April, and ending on Thursday the 23d day of April, 1868, at which all registered voters of said State may vote "For Constitution" or "Against Constitution," and also on the same ballot for the State and County officers and for members of the United States House of Representatives, as specified in the before cited ordinance.

Second. It shall be the duty of the Boards of Registration in North Carolina, commencing fourteen days prior to the election herein ordered, and giving reasonable public notice of the time and place thereof, to revise for a period of five days, the registration lists; and upon being satisfied that any person not entitled thereto has been registered, to strike the name of such person from the lists, and such persons shall not be entitled to vote. The Boards of Registration shall also, during the same period, add to such lists the names of all persons who at that time possess the qualifications required by said Acts, who have not already been registered.

Third. In deciding who are to be stricken from or added to the registration lists, the Boards will be guided by the law of March 2, 1867 and the laws supplementary thereto, and their attention is specially directed to the supplementary Act of July 19, 1867.

Fourth. Any duly registered voter of this State who may have removed from the County in which he was registered, shall be entitled to vote in the County to which he has removed and has resided for the ten days next preceding this election, upon presentation of a certificate of registration from the County in which he was originally registered, or upon his affidavit or other satisfactory evidence that he was so registered, and that he has not voted at this election. It shall be the duty of the Registrars, upon the application of any duly registered voter who has removed or is about to remove from the County in which he was originally registered, to furnish him with a certificate that he was so registered, and to note the fact in the registration books of the precinct. In default of the certificate, the affidavit of the voter must set forth the County and precinct in which he was originally registered and the length of time he has resided in the County in which he desires to vote. In doubtful cases, the Registrars or Inspectors of election shall require such additional evidence as may be necessary to satisfy them that the applicant is legally entitled to vote. Blank forms for the certificates and for the affidavits herein required, will be furnished the Registrars and the inspectors of election, and when used will be attached to the ballots cast by such voters, and will be transmitted to District Headquarters with the returns required by law.

Fifth. The said election will be held in each County at such places as may hereafter be designated, under the superintendence of the boards of Registration as provided by law, and in accordance with instructions hereafter to be given to said Boards in conformity with the Acts of Congress and so far as may be with the laws of North Carolina.

Sixth. The polls shall be opened at such voting places at six o'clock in the forenoon, and closed at six o'clock in the afternoon of each day, and shall be kept open during these hours without intermission or adjournment.

Seventh. All Judges and Clerks employed in conducting said election shall, before commencing to hold the same, be sworn to the faithful performance of their duties, and shall also take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by law for officers of the United States.

Eighth. No member of the Board of Registration, who is a candidate for election to any office to be filled at this election, shall serve as a Judge or Inspector of Election in any precinct which he seeks to represent.

Ninth. The Sheriff and other peace officers of each County are required to be present during the whole time that the polls are kept open, and until the election is completed; and will be made responsible that there shall be no interference with Judges of Election, or other interruption of good order. If there should be more than one polling place in any County, the Sheriff of the County is empowered and directed to make such assignments of his deputies, and other peace officers to the other polling places as may in his judgment best subserve the purposes of quiet and order; and he is further required to report those arrangements in advance to the Commander of the Military Post in which his County is situated.

Tenth. Violence, or threats of violence, or of discharge from employment, or other oppressive means to prevent any person from registering or exercising his right of voting, is positively prohibited; and any such attempts will be reported by the Registrars or Judges of Elections, to the Post Commander, and will cause the arrest and trial of the offenders by military authority. The exhibition or carrying of deadly weapons in violation of General Orders No. 10, of 1867, at or in the vicinity of any polling places during the election herein ordered, will be regarded and treated as an additional offence.

Eleventh. All bar rooms, saloons, and other places for the sale of liquors by retail, will be closed from six o'clock of the evening of the 20th of April, until six o'clock of the morning of the 24th of April, 1868, and during this time the sale of all intoxicating liquors at or near any polling place is prohibited. The police officers of cities and towns, and the Sheriffs and other peace officers of Counties, will be held responsible for the strict enforcement of this prohibition, and will promptly arrest and hold for trial all persons who may transgress it.

Twelfth. Military interference with elections, unless it shall be necessary to repel the armed enemies of the United States, or to keep the peace at the polls," is prohibited by the Act of Congress approved February 23, 1865, and no soldiers will be allowed to appear at any polling place, unless as citizens of the State they are qualified and are registered as voters, and then only for the purpose of voting; but the Commanders of Posts will keep their troops well in hand on the days of election, and will be prepared to act promptly if the civil authorities are unable to preserve the peace.

Thirteenth. NEW ARRANGEMENT
FOR THE SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,
Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, } Editors.
Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;
Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;
The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;
The equality of the three co ordinate branches of the government;
The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;
The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;
Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.—The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Terms:

All subscriptions strictly cash in advance.
As an advertising medium, the SENTINEL is equal to any in the State. Terms moderate.

☞ We ask every Conservative in the State to become our Agent to extend the circulation of the SENTINEL. The events of 1868 will be exciting and important. The WEEKLY SENTINEL should be in the hands of the great body of the people—The terms are now so low that every one will be able to pay for it.
